Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, 1989 is the Centennial year of South Dakota's statehood; and,

WHEREAS, Members of the South Dakota Federation of Teen Age Republicans (TARs) are playing an important role in politics and government, and have been recognized and awarded the "Outstanding State TAR Federation of the United States of America" ten of the last thirteen years; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota TARs offer teenagers, with desire and ability, an opportunity to enter the political field and provide themselves with the occasion to work together for common purposes of individual growth and improvement of their communities and government; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota TAR Camp is a unique leadership experience and an opportunity to learn first-hand more about our governmental system from some of the nation's and state's more prominent elected Republican leaders; and,

WHEREAS, The TARs convene their own political convention and elect their statewide officers for the 1989-1990 year; and,

WHEREAS, The South Dakota TARs are meeting at Storm Mountain Center in the beautiful Black Hills the week of July 30 through August 5 for their twenty-ninth annual camp and convention; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor of the State of South Dakota take note of this occasion:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 30 through August 5, 1989, as

TAR CAMP WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
